DEDICATION

We, the class of 1952, wish to dedicate this annual to all graduates and teachers of Bloomingburg High School who have served and who are now serving their country with unselfish and patriotic devotion.

Too many of us Americans accept as a matter of course the freedom dearly bought by our forefathers on the battlefield and defended at such great cost in lives by the young men and women of almost every generation, including our own.

Our hope for the future is that expressed by the great expounder and defender of the Constitution, Daniel Webster: "When my eyes shall be turned to behold for the last time the sun in heaven, let their last feeble and lingering glance behold the gorgeous ensign of the republic, now known and honored throughout the earth, still full high advance, its arms and trophies streaming in their original luster, not a stripe erased or polluted, not a single star obscured, bearing for its motto no such miserable interrogatory as 'What is all this worth?' but everywhere, spread all over in characters of living light, blazing on all its ample folds, as they float over the sea and over the land, and in every wind under the whole heavens, that sentiment, dear to every true American heart:

Liberty and Union, now and forever,
One and inseparable!"

—Elton B. Elliott

CLASS HISTORY

Twelve years ago we embarked on the road of learning and we have finally reached our goal. Five members of our class have spent their entire school career together. They are Eugene Nelson, Delores Foster, Phyllis Simerl, Norma Jean Noble, and Mary Lewis.

Time really flew as we were promoted through the grades, and came the high point of our grade career, the eighth-grade tests. Several of us received honors in the tests.

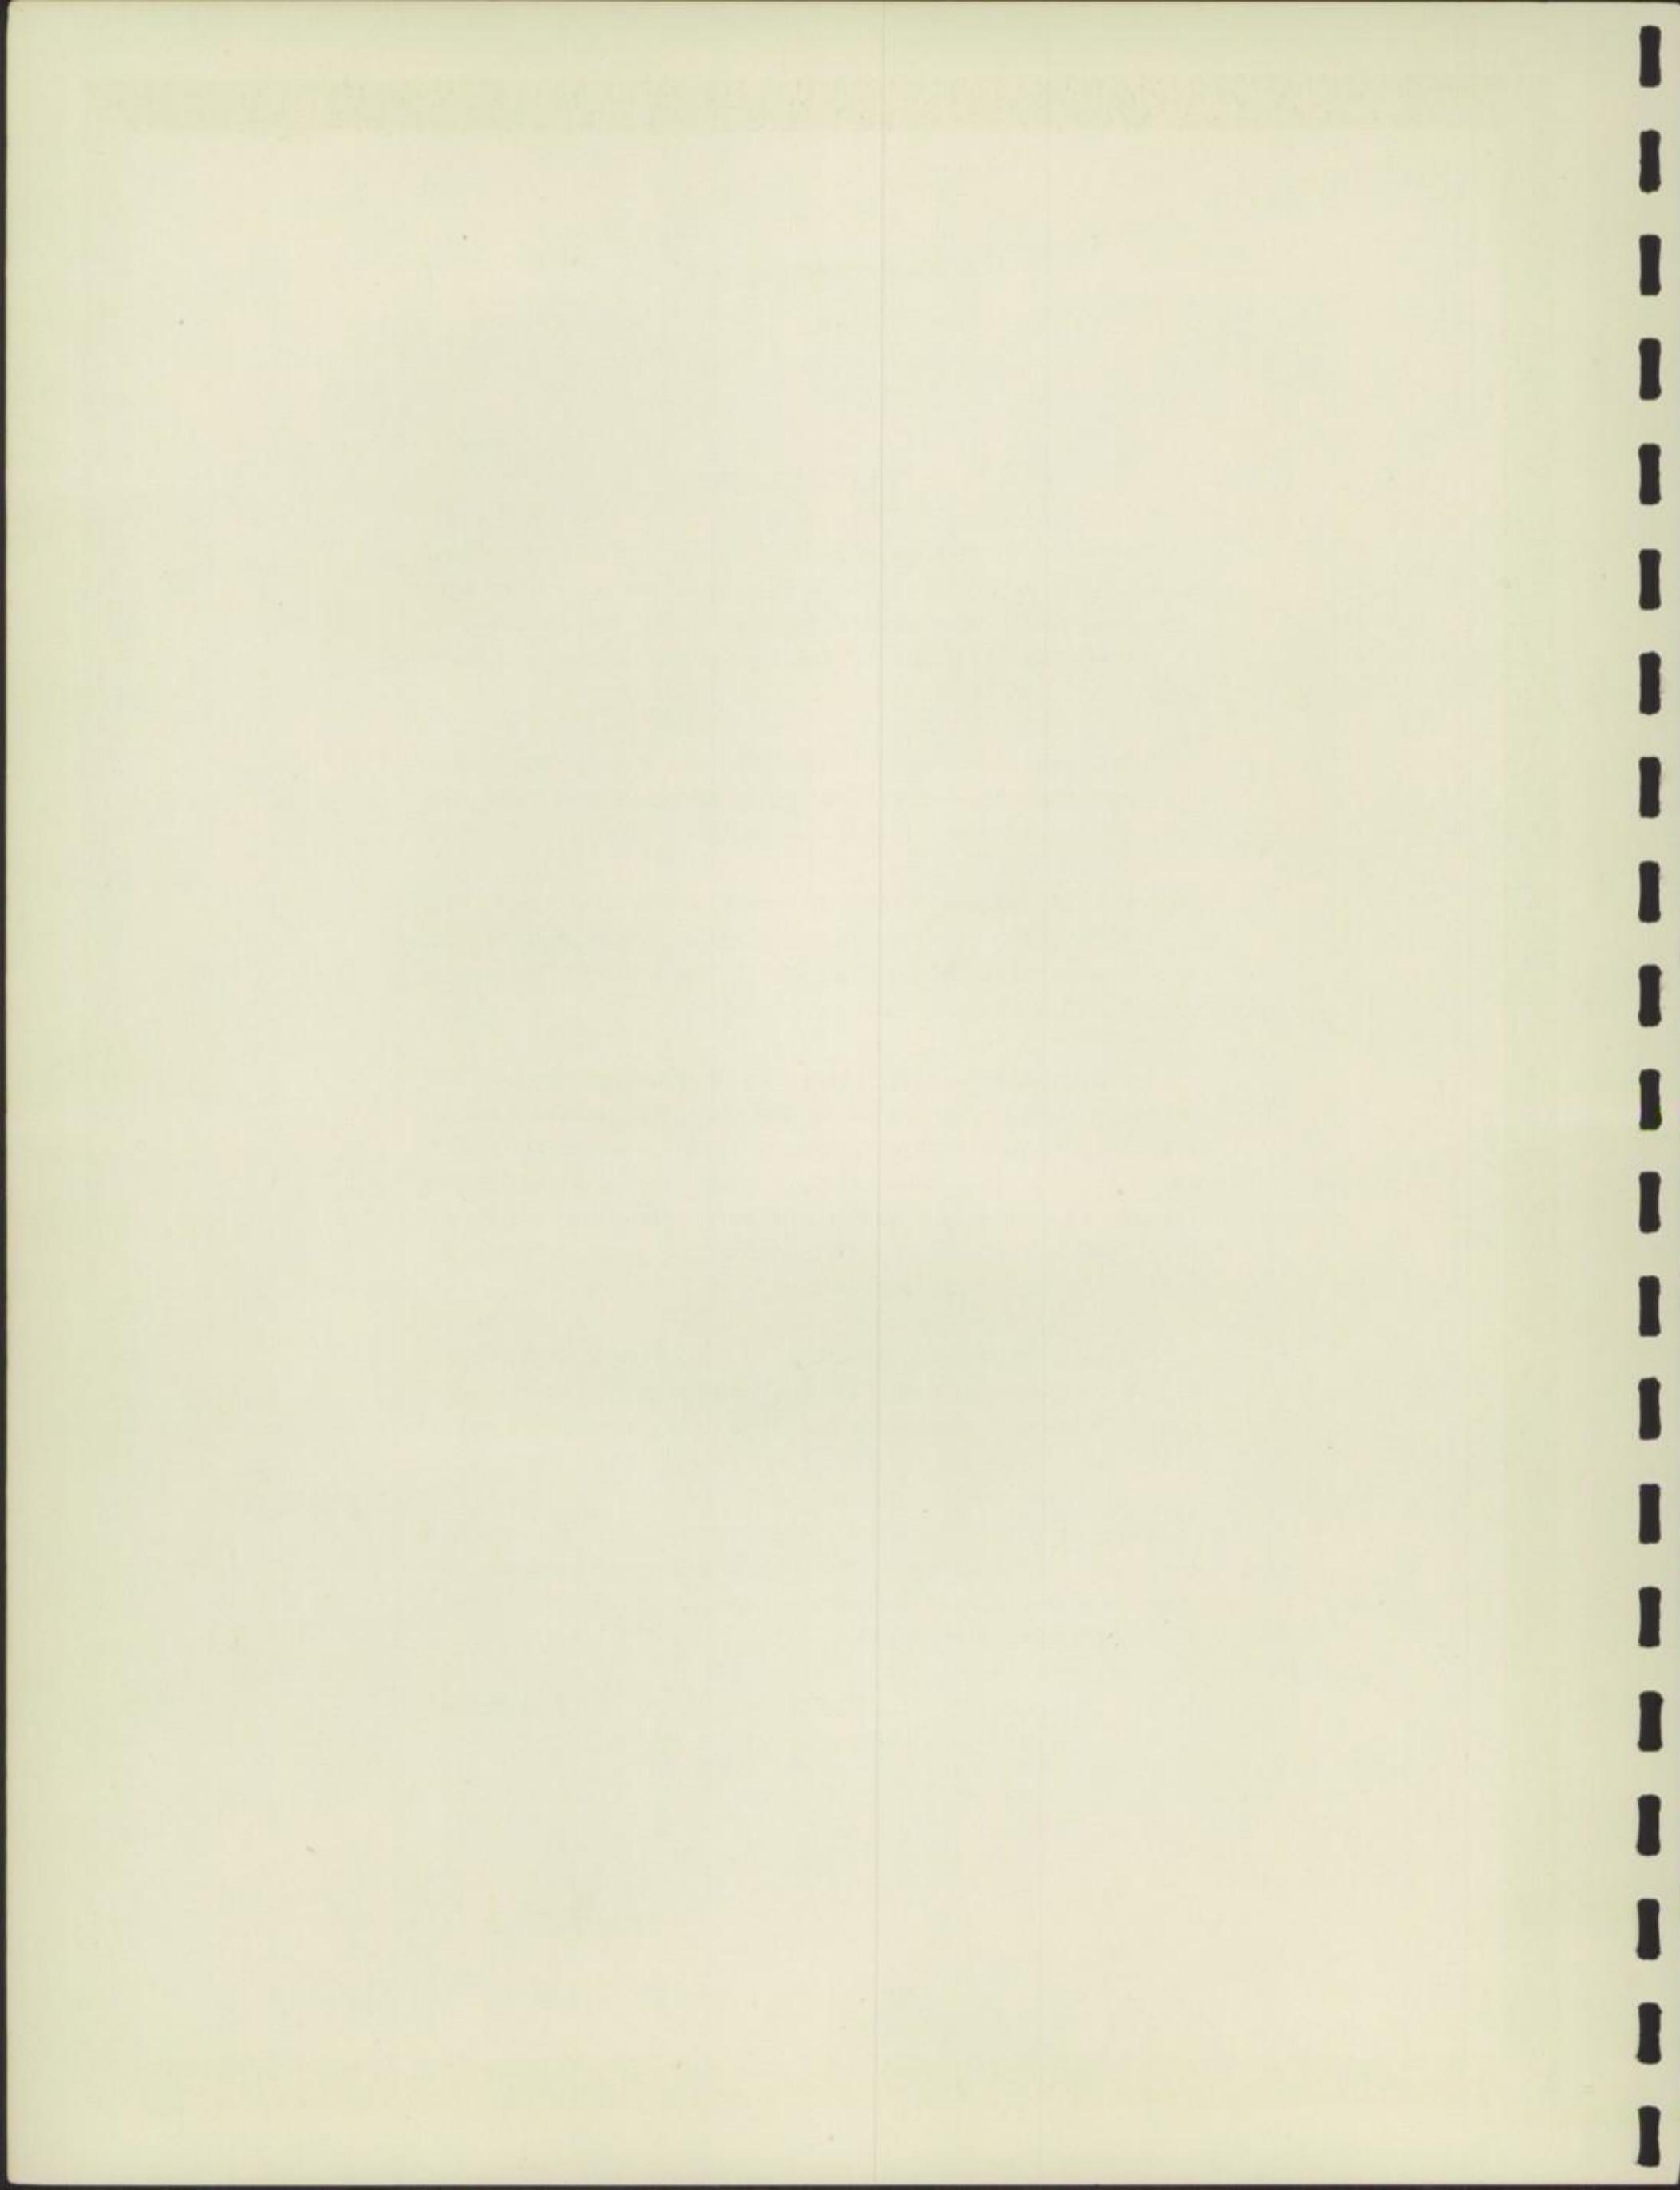

When we became Juniors we received our class rings. Our play, "The Ghost of a Chance," on October 26, brought to light the Thespian talent of the Class of '52. On April 27, we gave a banquet for the Seniors.

We are finally Seniors. Many have dropped out of school and there are now only fourteen of us. But the small number is no indication of our participation in Sports, Music, and other School Activities. Our class has excelled in these lines, and will long be remembered individually and collectively. The class play on the 8th of May was one of the final contributions to our record in the annals of Bloomingburg High School.

We want to thank all of the teachers who have helped us along the way, and especially Mrs. Elliott, who has guided us so wisely. It is she who will chaperone and direct our trip to Washington, D. C., New York, and Atlantic City.

Soon we shall be on Life's Highway. We shall always think of our Happy School Days. There is much to which we look forward. Keeping this in mind we should think of our class motto, "Not for Ourselves but for All."

-- Paul Bennett

CLASS POEM

Oh, the Senior Class of '52,
Nobody knows what we shall do.

Upon each boy and girl we'll try to touch
And tell his story, though it isn't much.

Paul was born with brains,
His efforts ever resulted in gains.

D. D. is quite a girl,
She has all the boys in a whirl.

I think Eddie will be a mechanic,
Because he's never in a panic.

Ronald is quite studious, so it appears,
From the grades he's earned all these years.

Every Class should have a Mary,
So quiet, she seems like a fairy.

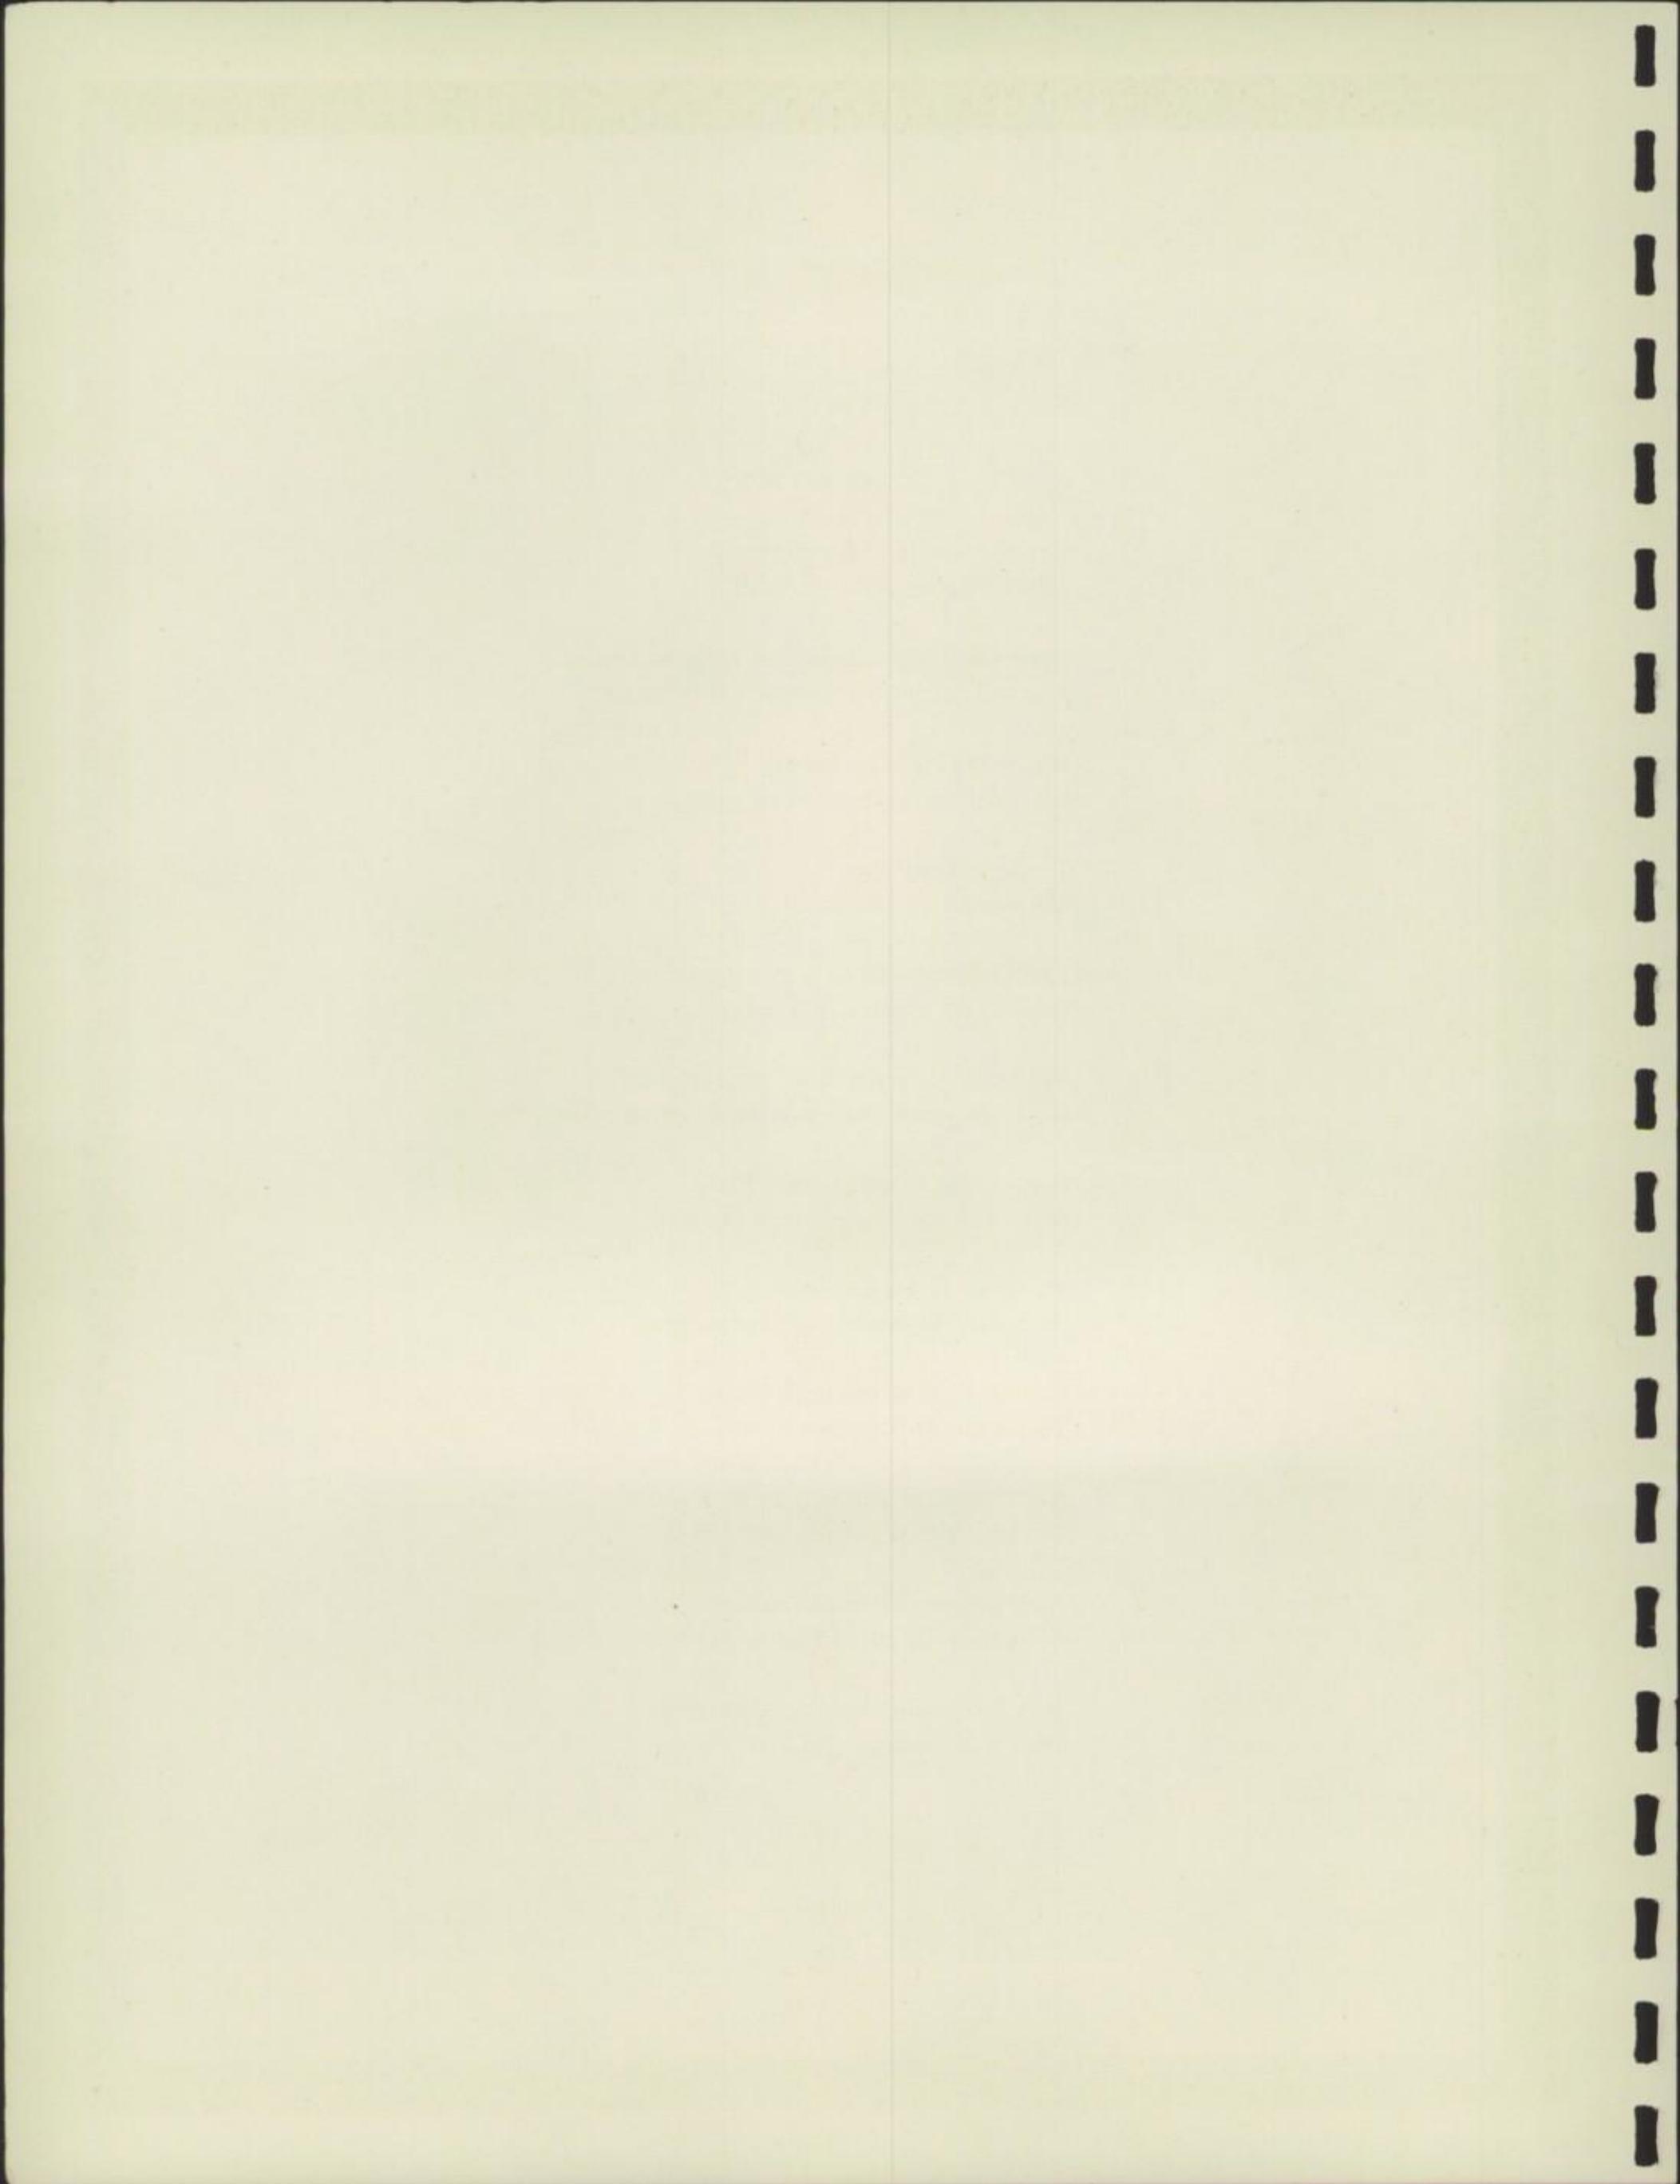

Macky is a farmer, indeed,
He knows all about each little seed.

Eugene is quite a scream,
To all the girls he is a dream.

Now Norma is planning to be a wife,
And hopes to pep up Robert's life.

Phyllis hopes to go to College,
To learn a lot of knowledge.

Now Blanche is sweet as she can be,
She's a brunette as you can see.

Christina is a brilliant girl,
Her many talents she will unfurl.

Rachel, better known as Ruth,
Seems always to tell the truth.

Bonnie can't wait till the last day,
For the two words she's waiting to say.

Let's not forget our teacher, kind and true,
Mrs. Elliott, here's a cheer for you.

-- Phyllis Simerl

Improving on Webster stenographer--a girl you pay to learn to spell while she's looking for a husband.

savior faire--the ability to smile when you suddenly discover that your best pal and your girl are both missing from the dance floor.

The Dance
The rhumba is a dance where the front of you goes along nice & smooth like a Cadillac & the back of you makes like a jeep.

Me-o-u-w!
One Girl to Another: "Of course I had to tell her she looked like a million and I meant every year of it."

"A" for Answer
Mrs. Elliott: Paul, give me a sentence with an object in it.

Paul: You are very beautiful.
Mrs. Elliott: What is the object?
Paul: To get a good grade.

Warning
Mrs. Biddle: Yes, K. O.,
what is it?
K. O.: I don't want to scare you, Mrs. Biddle, but Pop says if I don't get a better grade someone is going to get a licking.

Unromantic Thought
She sat on the bridge in the moonlight and tickled his face with her toes, for she was just a mosquito, and the bridge was the bridge of his nose.

Senior Prophecy

I, Adulah Paduca McDonald, possess many great powers of magic and am the only real master of the magic carpet, "Seat Smacker". I call my carpet that because when it lands, it hits the ground with such a hard thump. I wonder if my classmates of the graduating class of 1952, have been so successful in life as I? "Magic carpet soar up high as a bird can fly! Take me to each of my classmates. I want to see what they have achieved in this year of 1962."

The "Seat Smacker" is landing in Reno, Nevada! There is D. D. Foster, the poor old maid, but maybe not for long for she is the president of the Lonely Hearts Club.

The magic carpet is flying toward a big circus tent and is landing near a side show. Oh! look at that pretty girl charming those big snakes! As I get closer I see none other than Phyllis Simerl.

I hadn't been flying long when the "Seat Smacker" stopped suddenly in the city of Bloomingburg, Ohio. Now who in the world could that be? Why, it's Ronald Lee, with six little Lee's following him.

Back onto the "Seat Smacker" and away to Paris, France. Where are all those people going? I'll have to go along. There is Rachael Trenner, a famous ballet dancer, appearing in a movie which she made in America.

Here I am back in America with "Seat Smacker" landing near the Farm Bureau Co-op of Washington Court House, Ohio. There Norma Jean Noble is operating a very funny machine - I never would have dreamed it - taking the heads off chickens.

"Seat Smacker" is dropping rapidly and heading for a ring. Wow! that was a close one. I wonder what would have happened if I had fallen into that ring with those girls. Don't I know one of those girls? Bonnie Waugh! The undisputed wrestling champion of America.

"Seat Smacker" is landing near a large building in San Francisco, California. In this building Christina Snodgrass operates a shop for sheering dogs, clipping their nails, and knits bright sweaters for them.

"Seat Smacker" landed right in front of a television camera. Why am I here, surely one of my classmates isn't in one of those cameras? Oh! there is Paul Bennett singing. The television announcer tells me that he is considered to have a better voice than Mario Lanza.

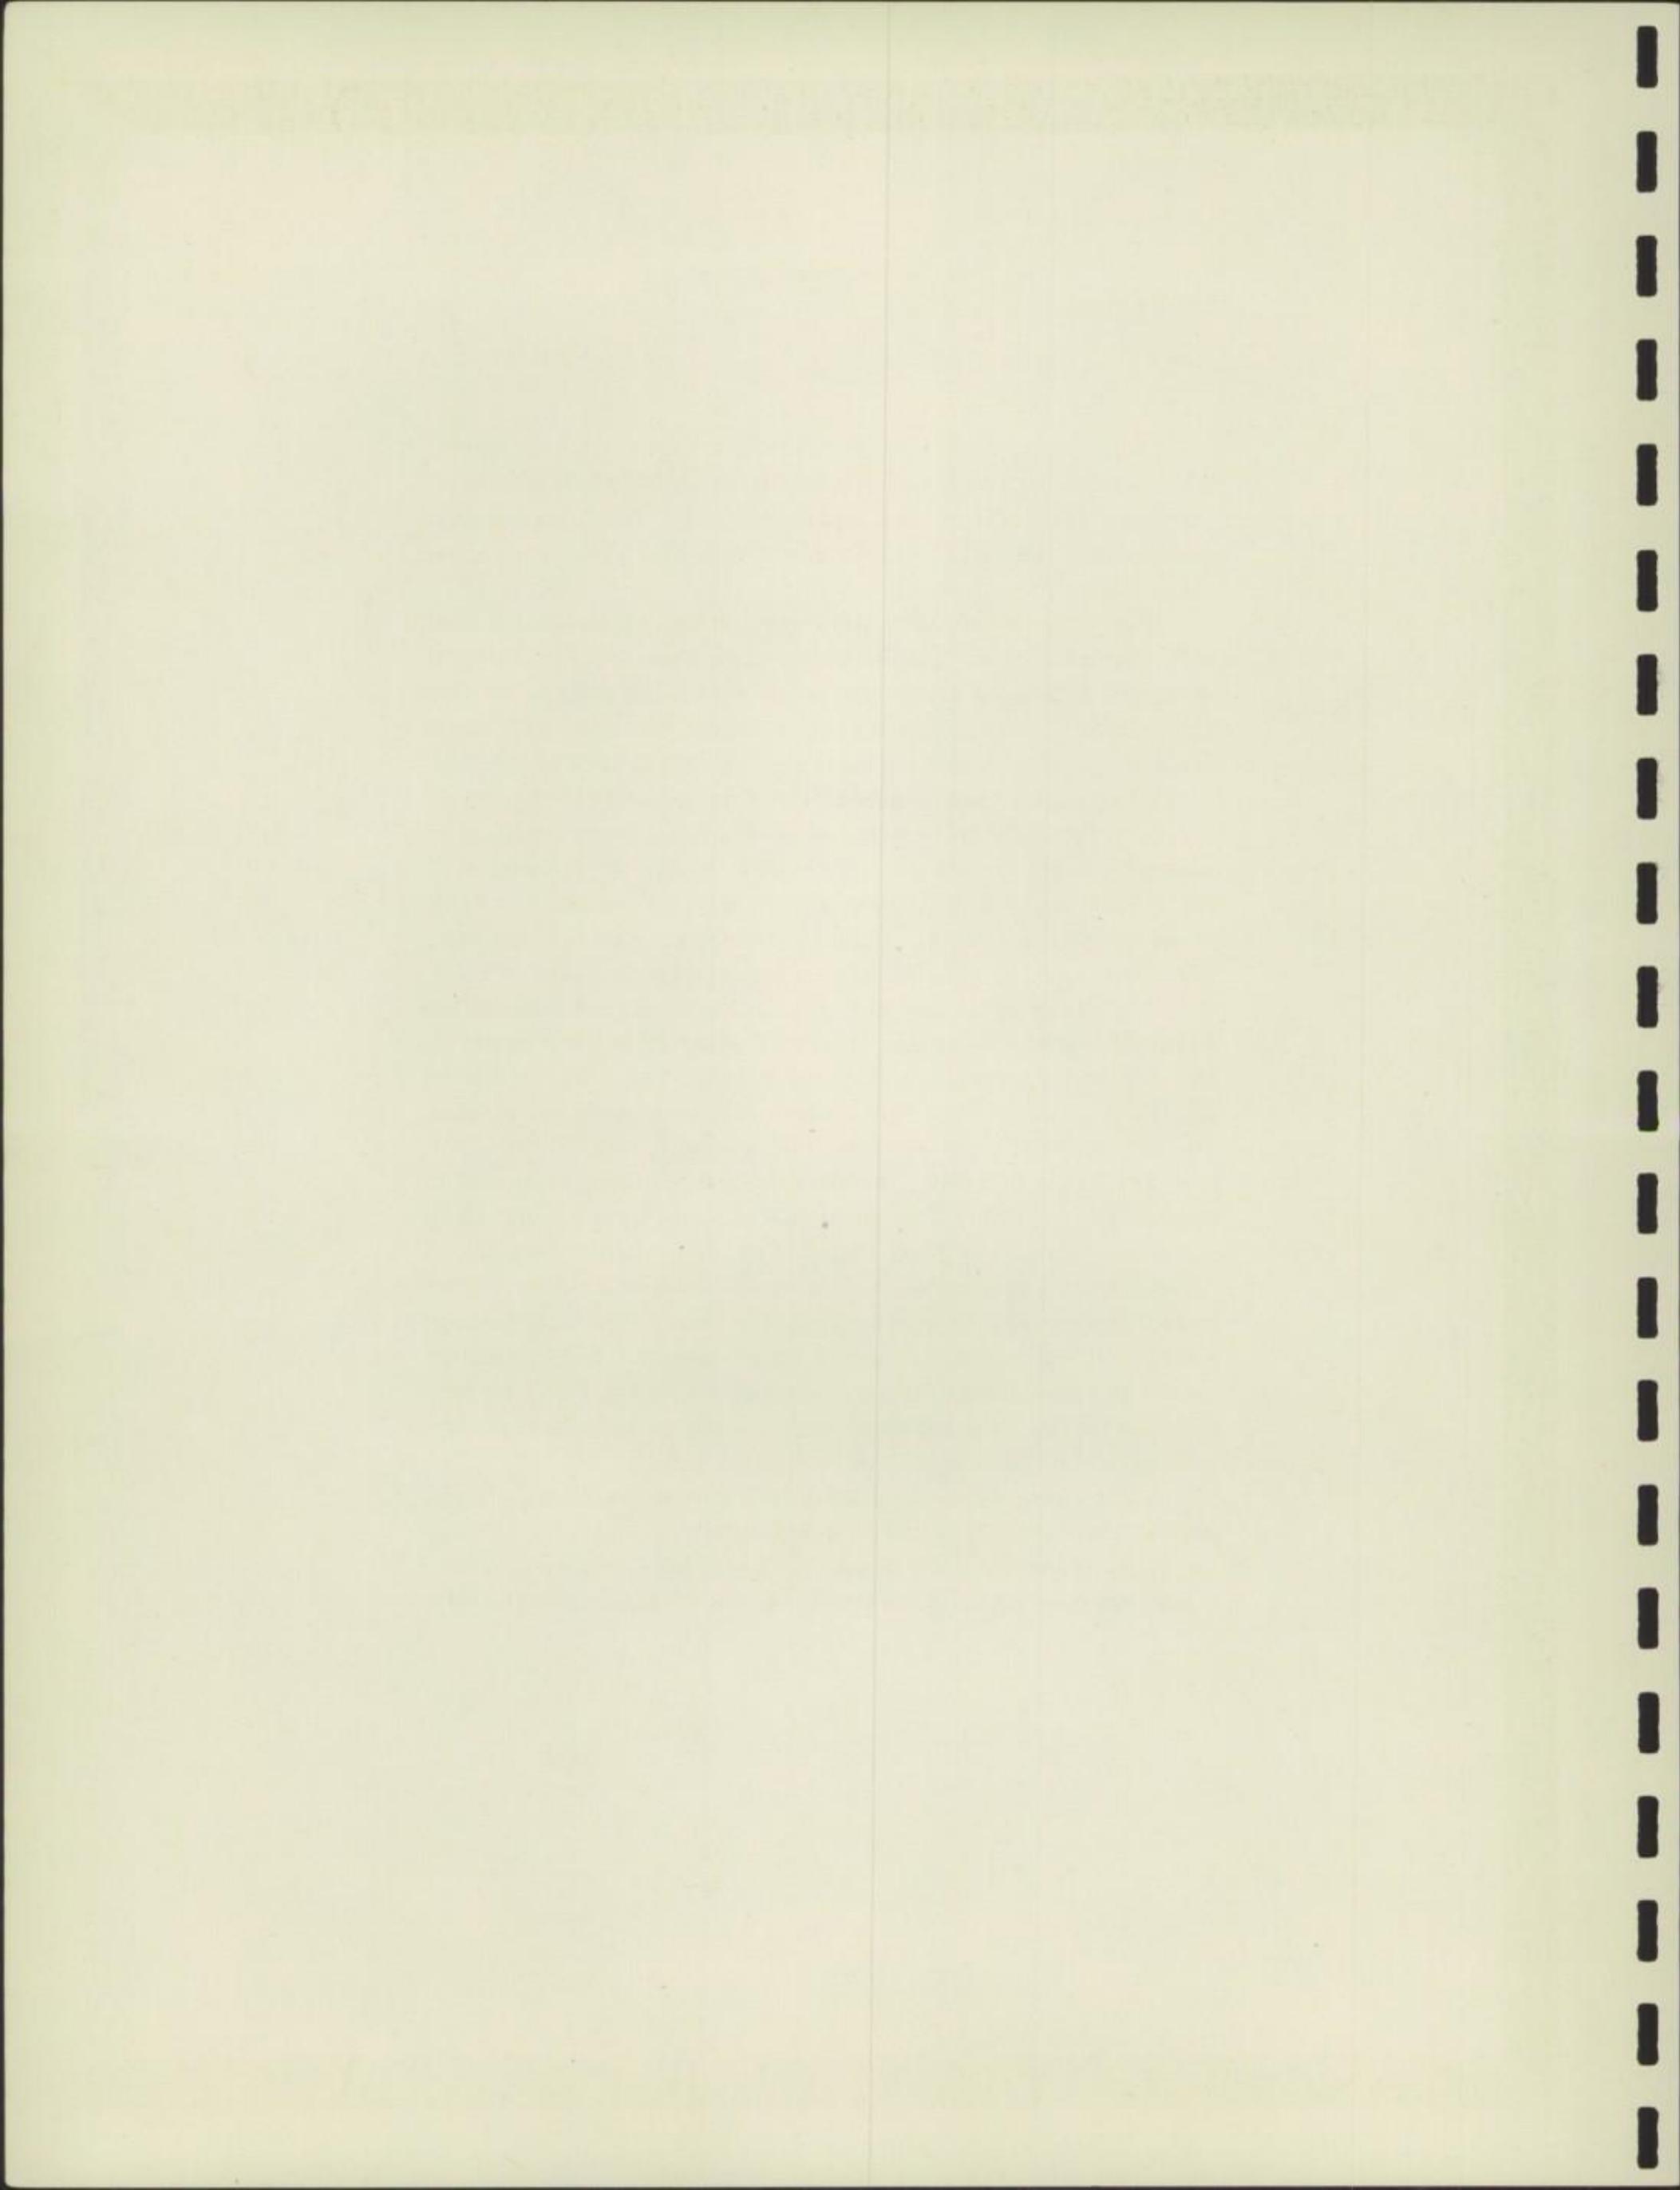

This "Seat Smacker" surely gets around. I am in the most high classed district in New York. Look how slowly that man is working. What is he doing? He seems to be inspecting the garbage cans. Oh my! that is Eugene Nelson. He tells me that he is a garbage inspector of the most high classed district in the city.

I had ridden "Seat Smacker" for only one and one-half minutes when it suddenly stopped on a beautiful yacht cruising on Lake Michigan. Gee Whiz! I just can't believe it. A member of my class owning such a magnificent boat. I learned that Mary Lewis owned this yacht. Mary had married a man who has been very successful in business as a manufacturer of formfit girdles.

The "Seat Smacker" thumped onto the ground near a big packing company in Tampa, Florida. Standing in the doorway of this packing company was Eddie Halterman. He told me that he has just completed a big business transaction in which he has taken over the Pickled Pigs' Feet Packing Company.

The "Seat Smacker" smacked the ground harder than ever in Bloomingburg, Ohio. The magic carpet must have got mixed up some way for it was here once before to show me Ronald Lee. Now who do you suppose the magic carpet almost forgot? What does that sign say? Skaggs' Garage! Oh, now I remember Blanche Skaggs. I went into the garage to see Blanche and I found her under an automobile. As I was leaving the garage I noticed several signs scattered about which advertised her mechanical ability, such as "Come to Skaggs to get rid of the waggs."

Then I ordered the "Seat Smacker" to take me home. Upon arrival I was greeted by my wife and children. My wife told me to sit down and rest for a while, but I told her that I would rather stand because I had been riding the "Seat Smacker" all day.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF
THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1952

We, the class of 1952 of Bloomingburg High School, of the City of Bloomingburg, County of Fayette, State of Ohio, being of sound mind and clear conscience, do make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament in manner and form as follows:

ITEM I:

We hereby will and bequeath to the Freshman Class our responsibilities and clear mindedness.

ITEM II:

We hereby will and bequeath the Sophomore Class our ability to make money fast.

ITEM III:

We hereby will and bequeath to the Junior Class our intelligence, dignity, and pride. We hope that when they become seniors they will uphold our high standards.

ITEM IV:

To our Superintendent, Mr. Biddle, and the High School Faculty we wish to extend our love and gratitude. We wish to assure them that we will never forget them.

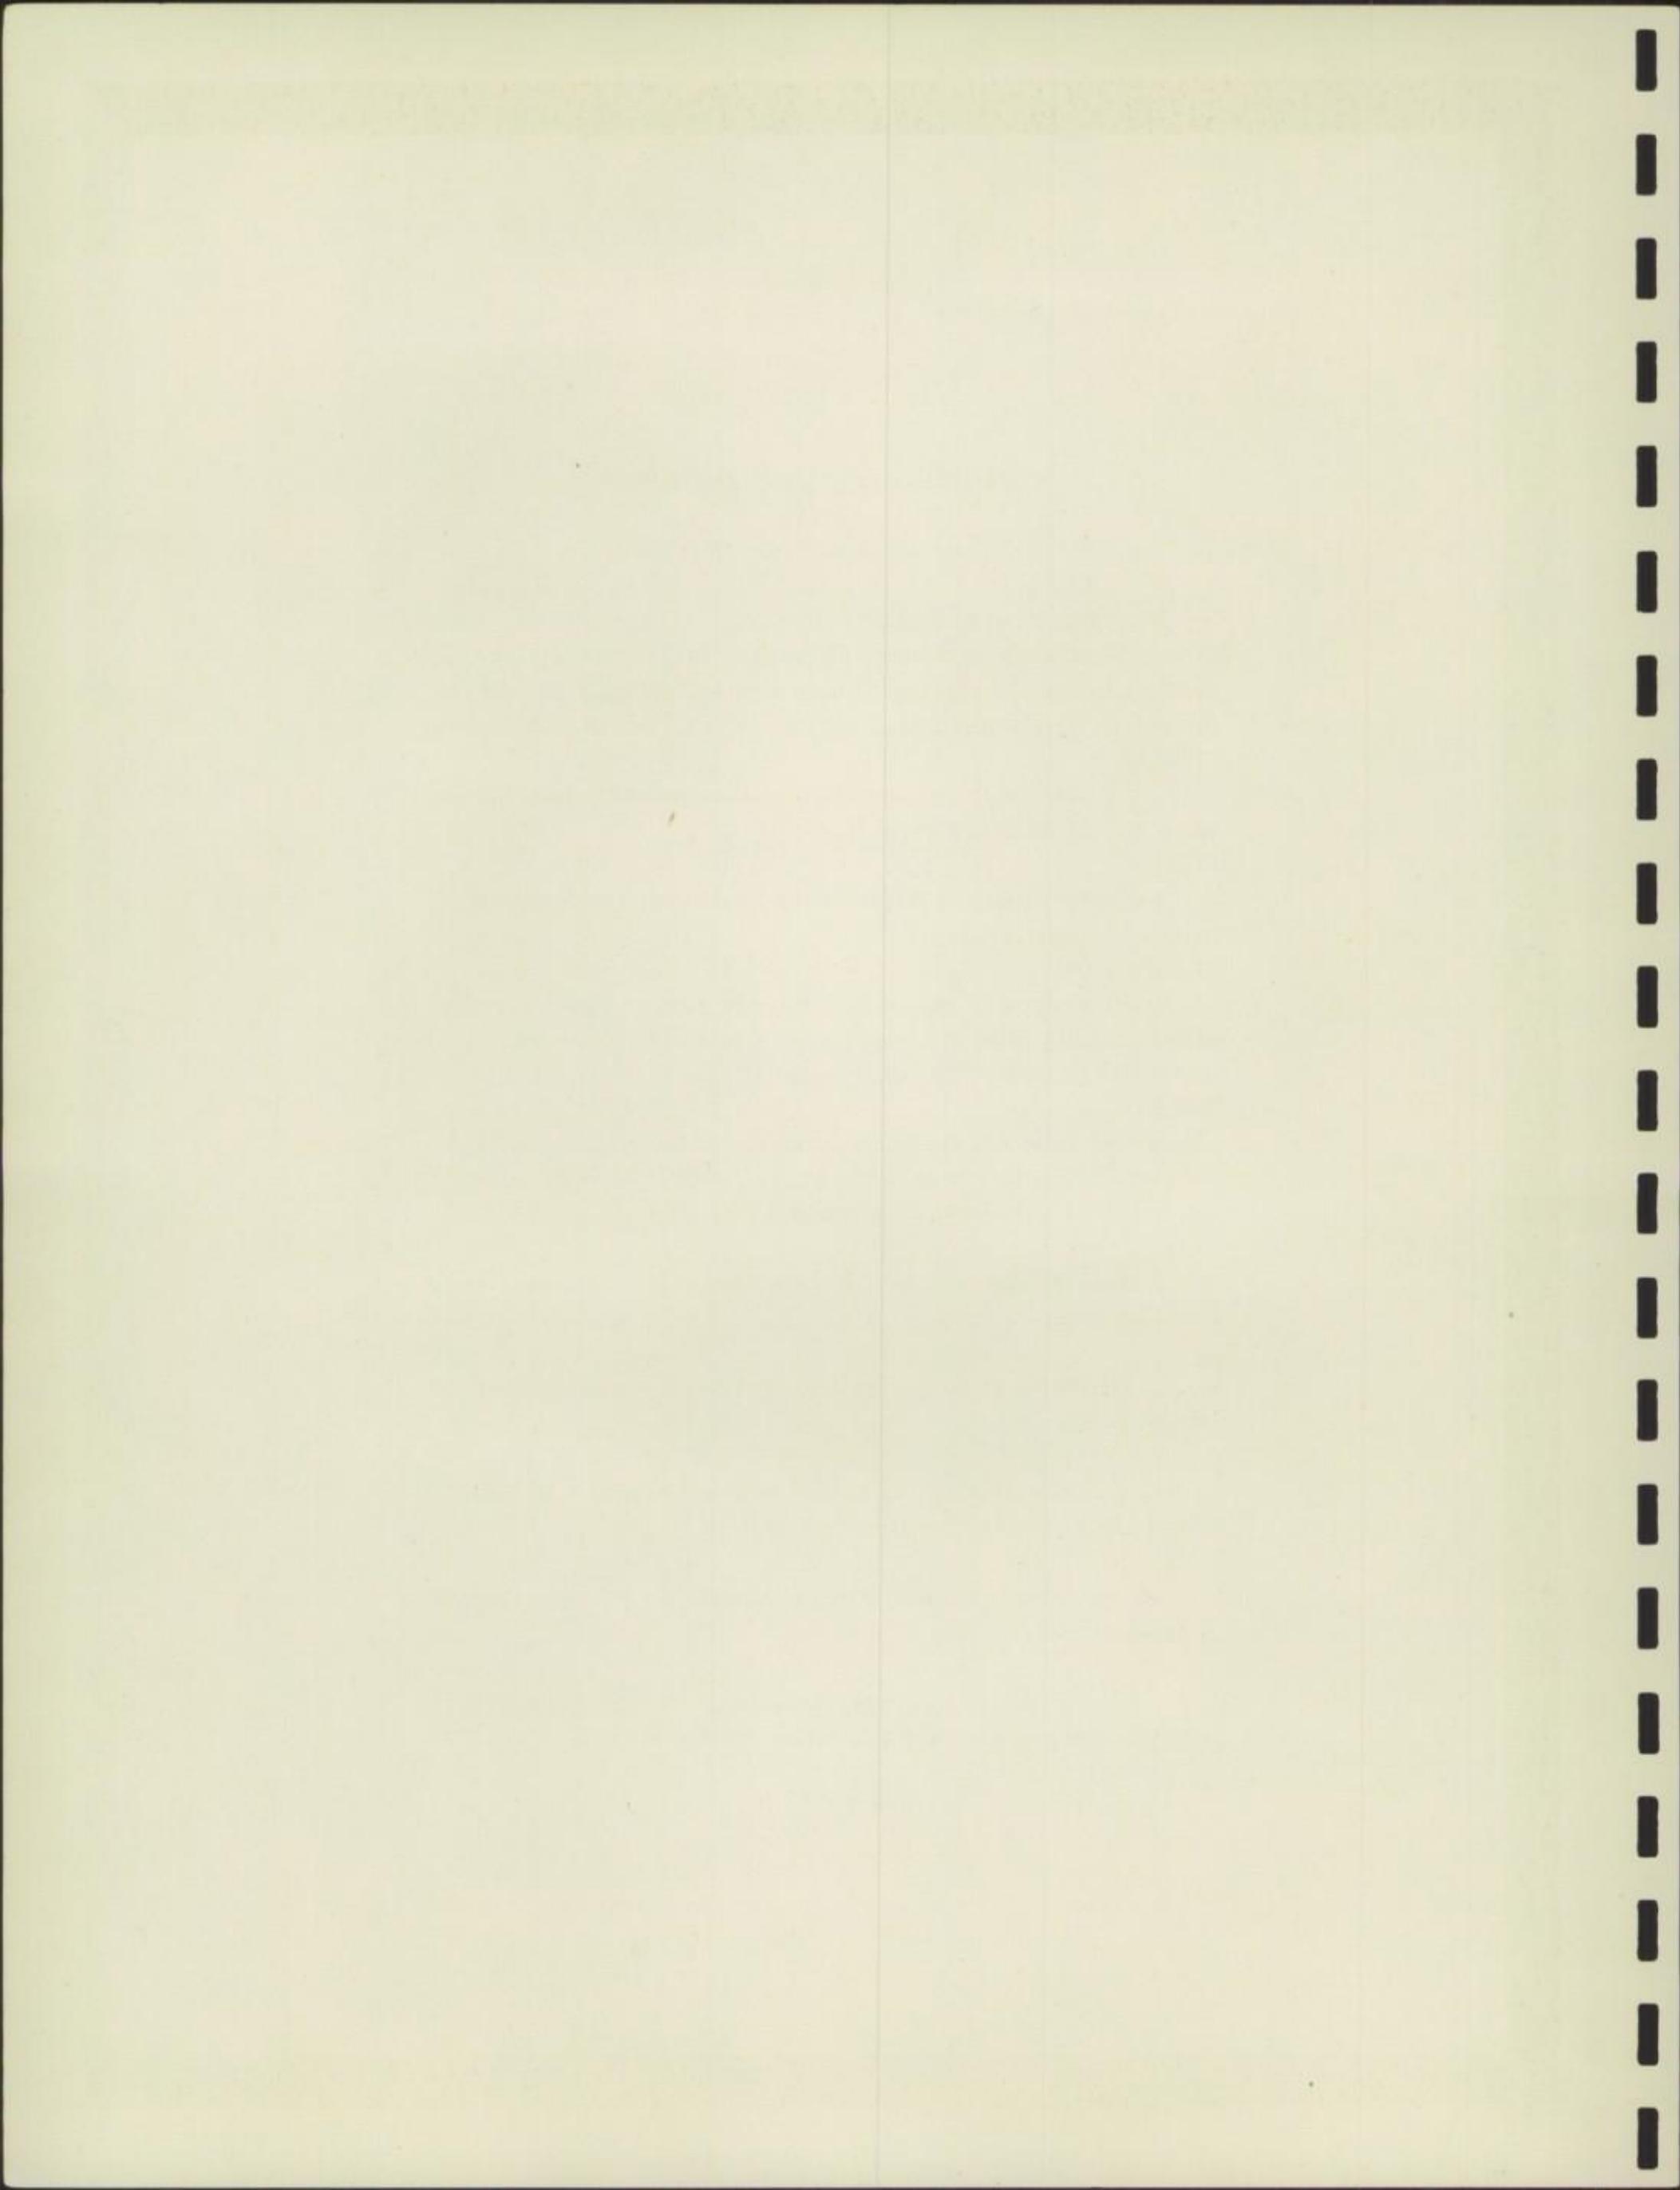

I, Paul Bennett, hereby will and bequeath my class ring to Edith Beekman.

I, Delores Foster, hereby will and bequeath all my love to Donald Dillon.

I, Matthew McDonald, hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble to Clarence Conaway.

I, Eugene Nelson, hereby will and bequeath my excess height to Eddie McFadden.

I, Norma Jean Noble, hereby will and bequeath the worn path from Bloomingburg to New Holland to my sister Patty.

I, Blanche Skaggs, hereby will and bequeath my sister Ruby to Larry Cleland.

I, Ronald Lee, hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with girls to my brother Larry.

I, Christina Snodgrass, hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay out of school to Leon Beekman.

I, Phyllis Simerl, hereby will and bequeath my bashfulness to Betty Barton.

I, Rachel Trenner, hereby will and bequeath my extreme thinness to Joanne Cleland.

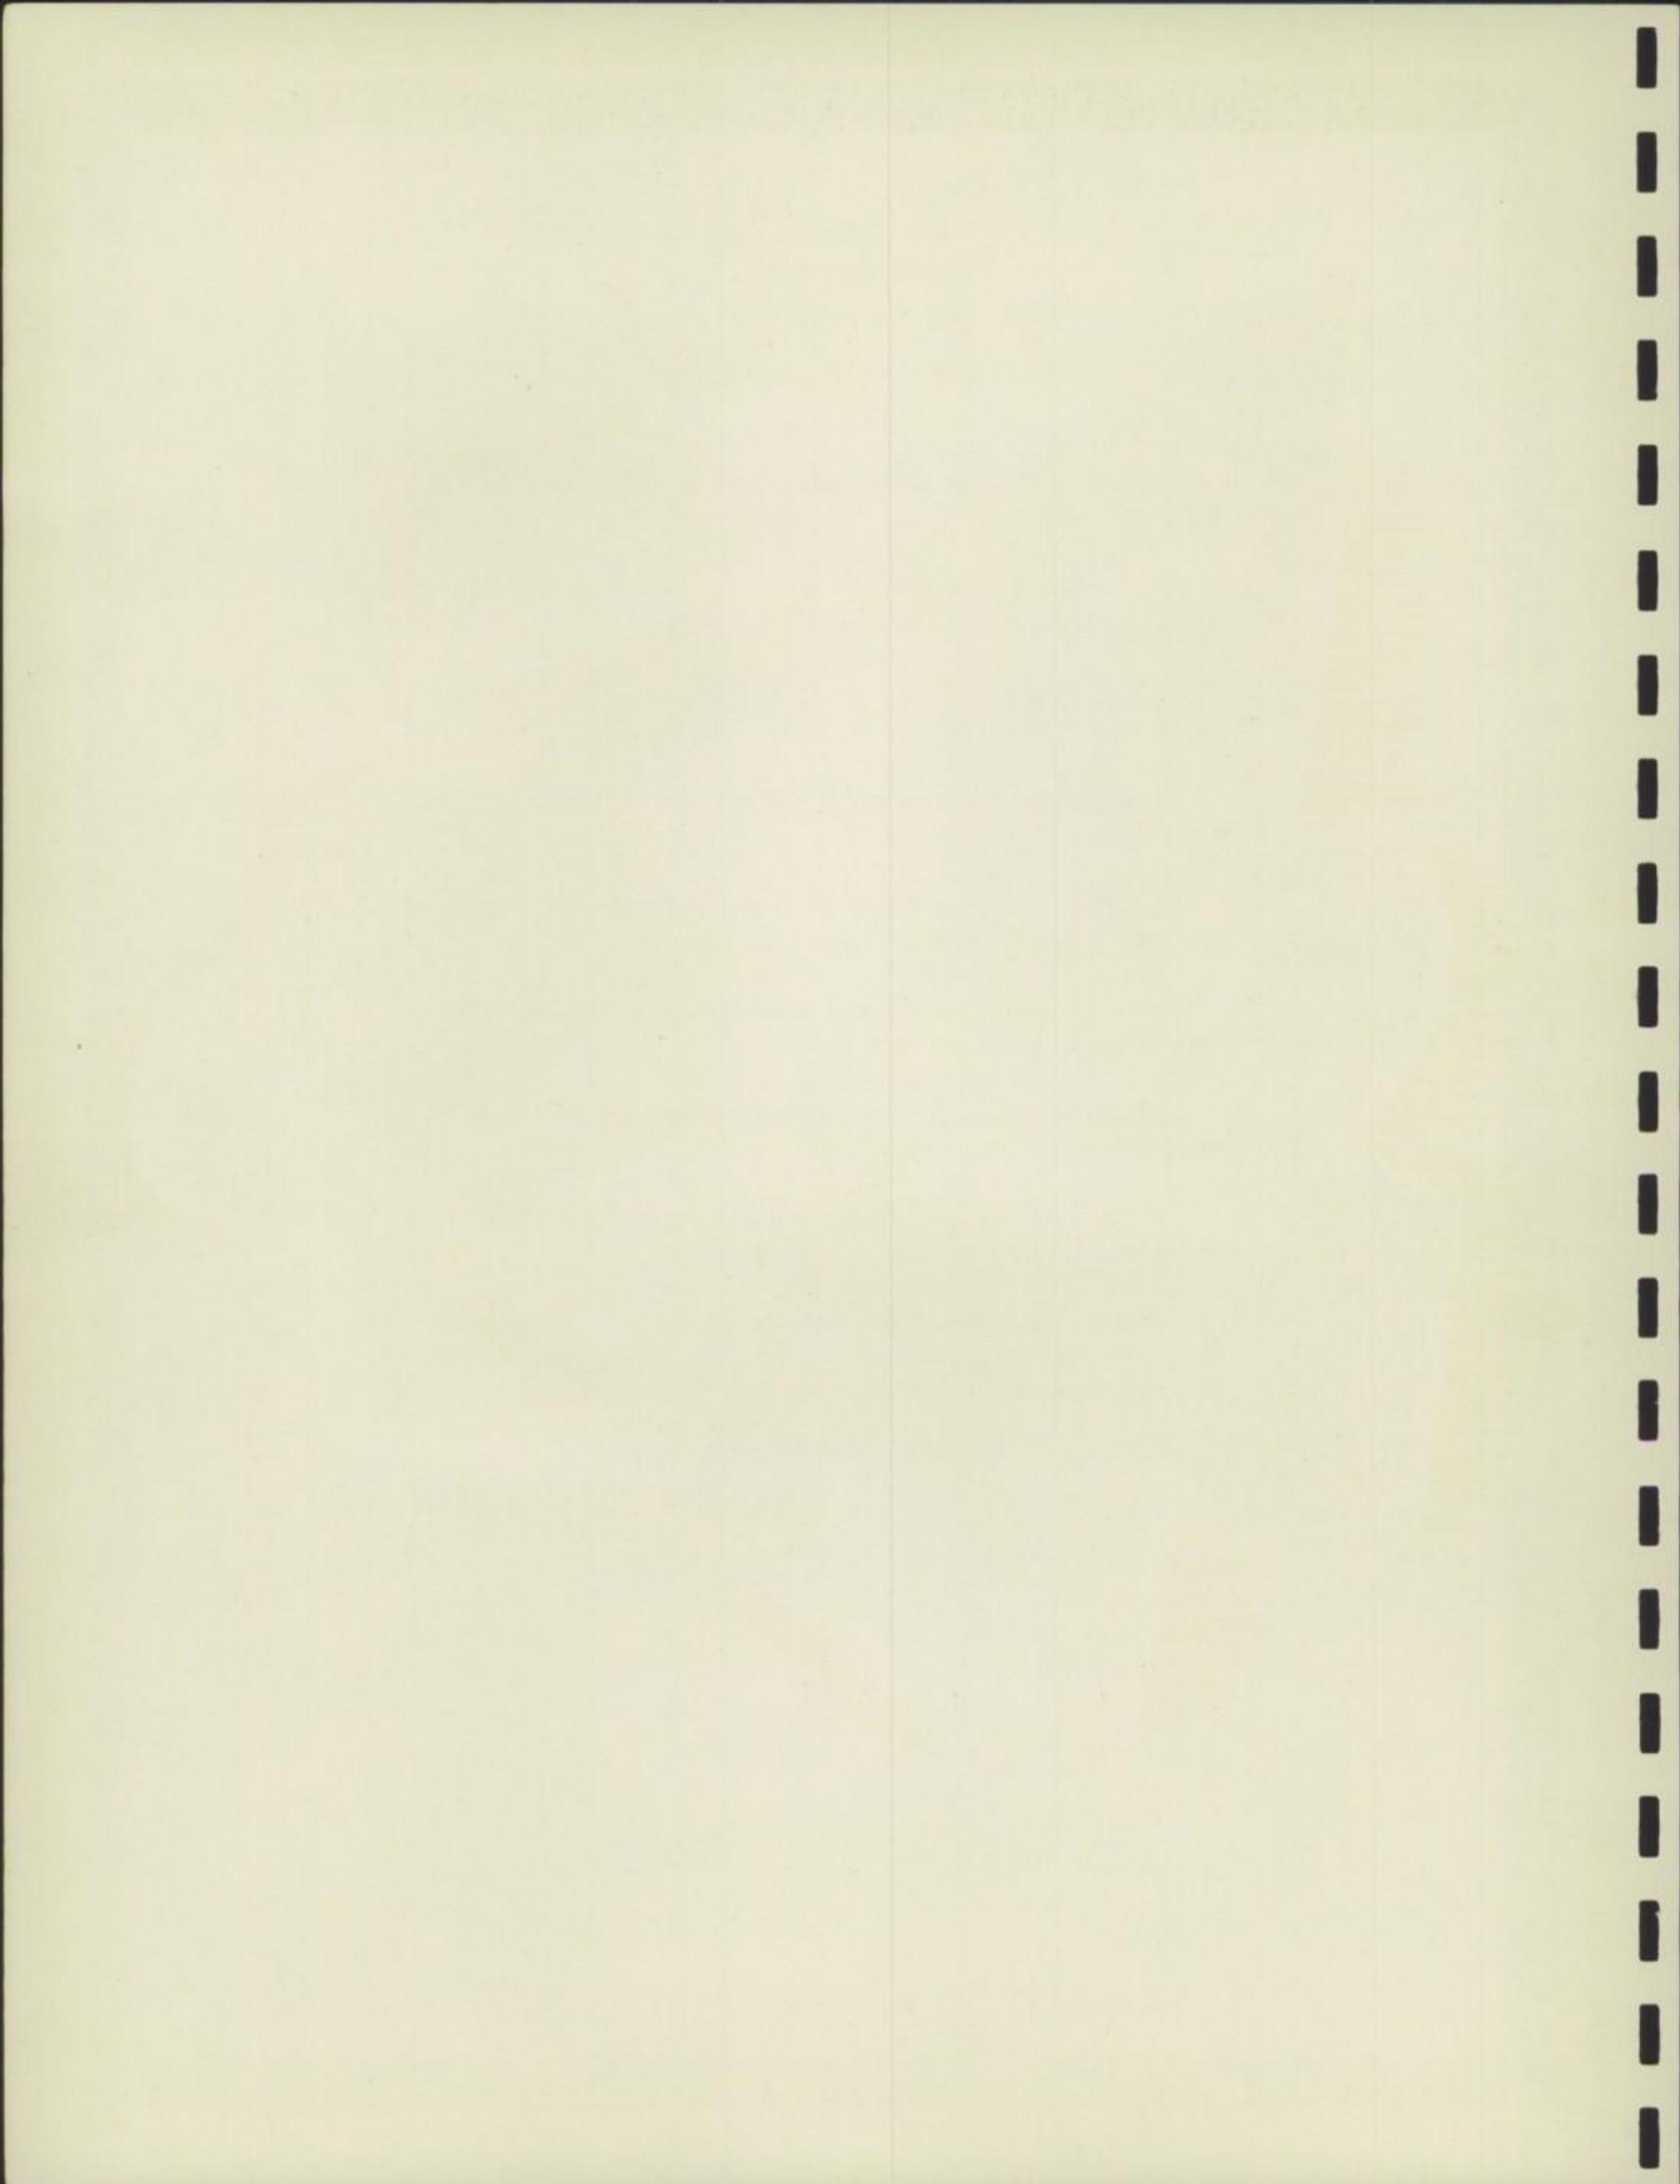

I, Mary Lewis, hereby will and bequeath my ability to flirt with the boys to Ruth Nichols.

I, Bonnie Waugh, hereby will and bequeath my love for out-of-town boys to Ruth Jones.

I, Eddie Halterman, hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Pfendler to Lloyd Davis.

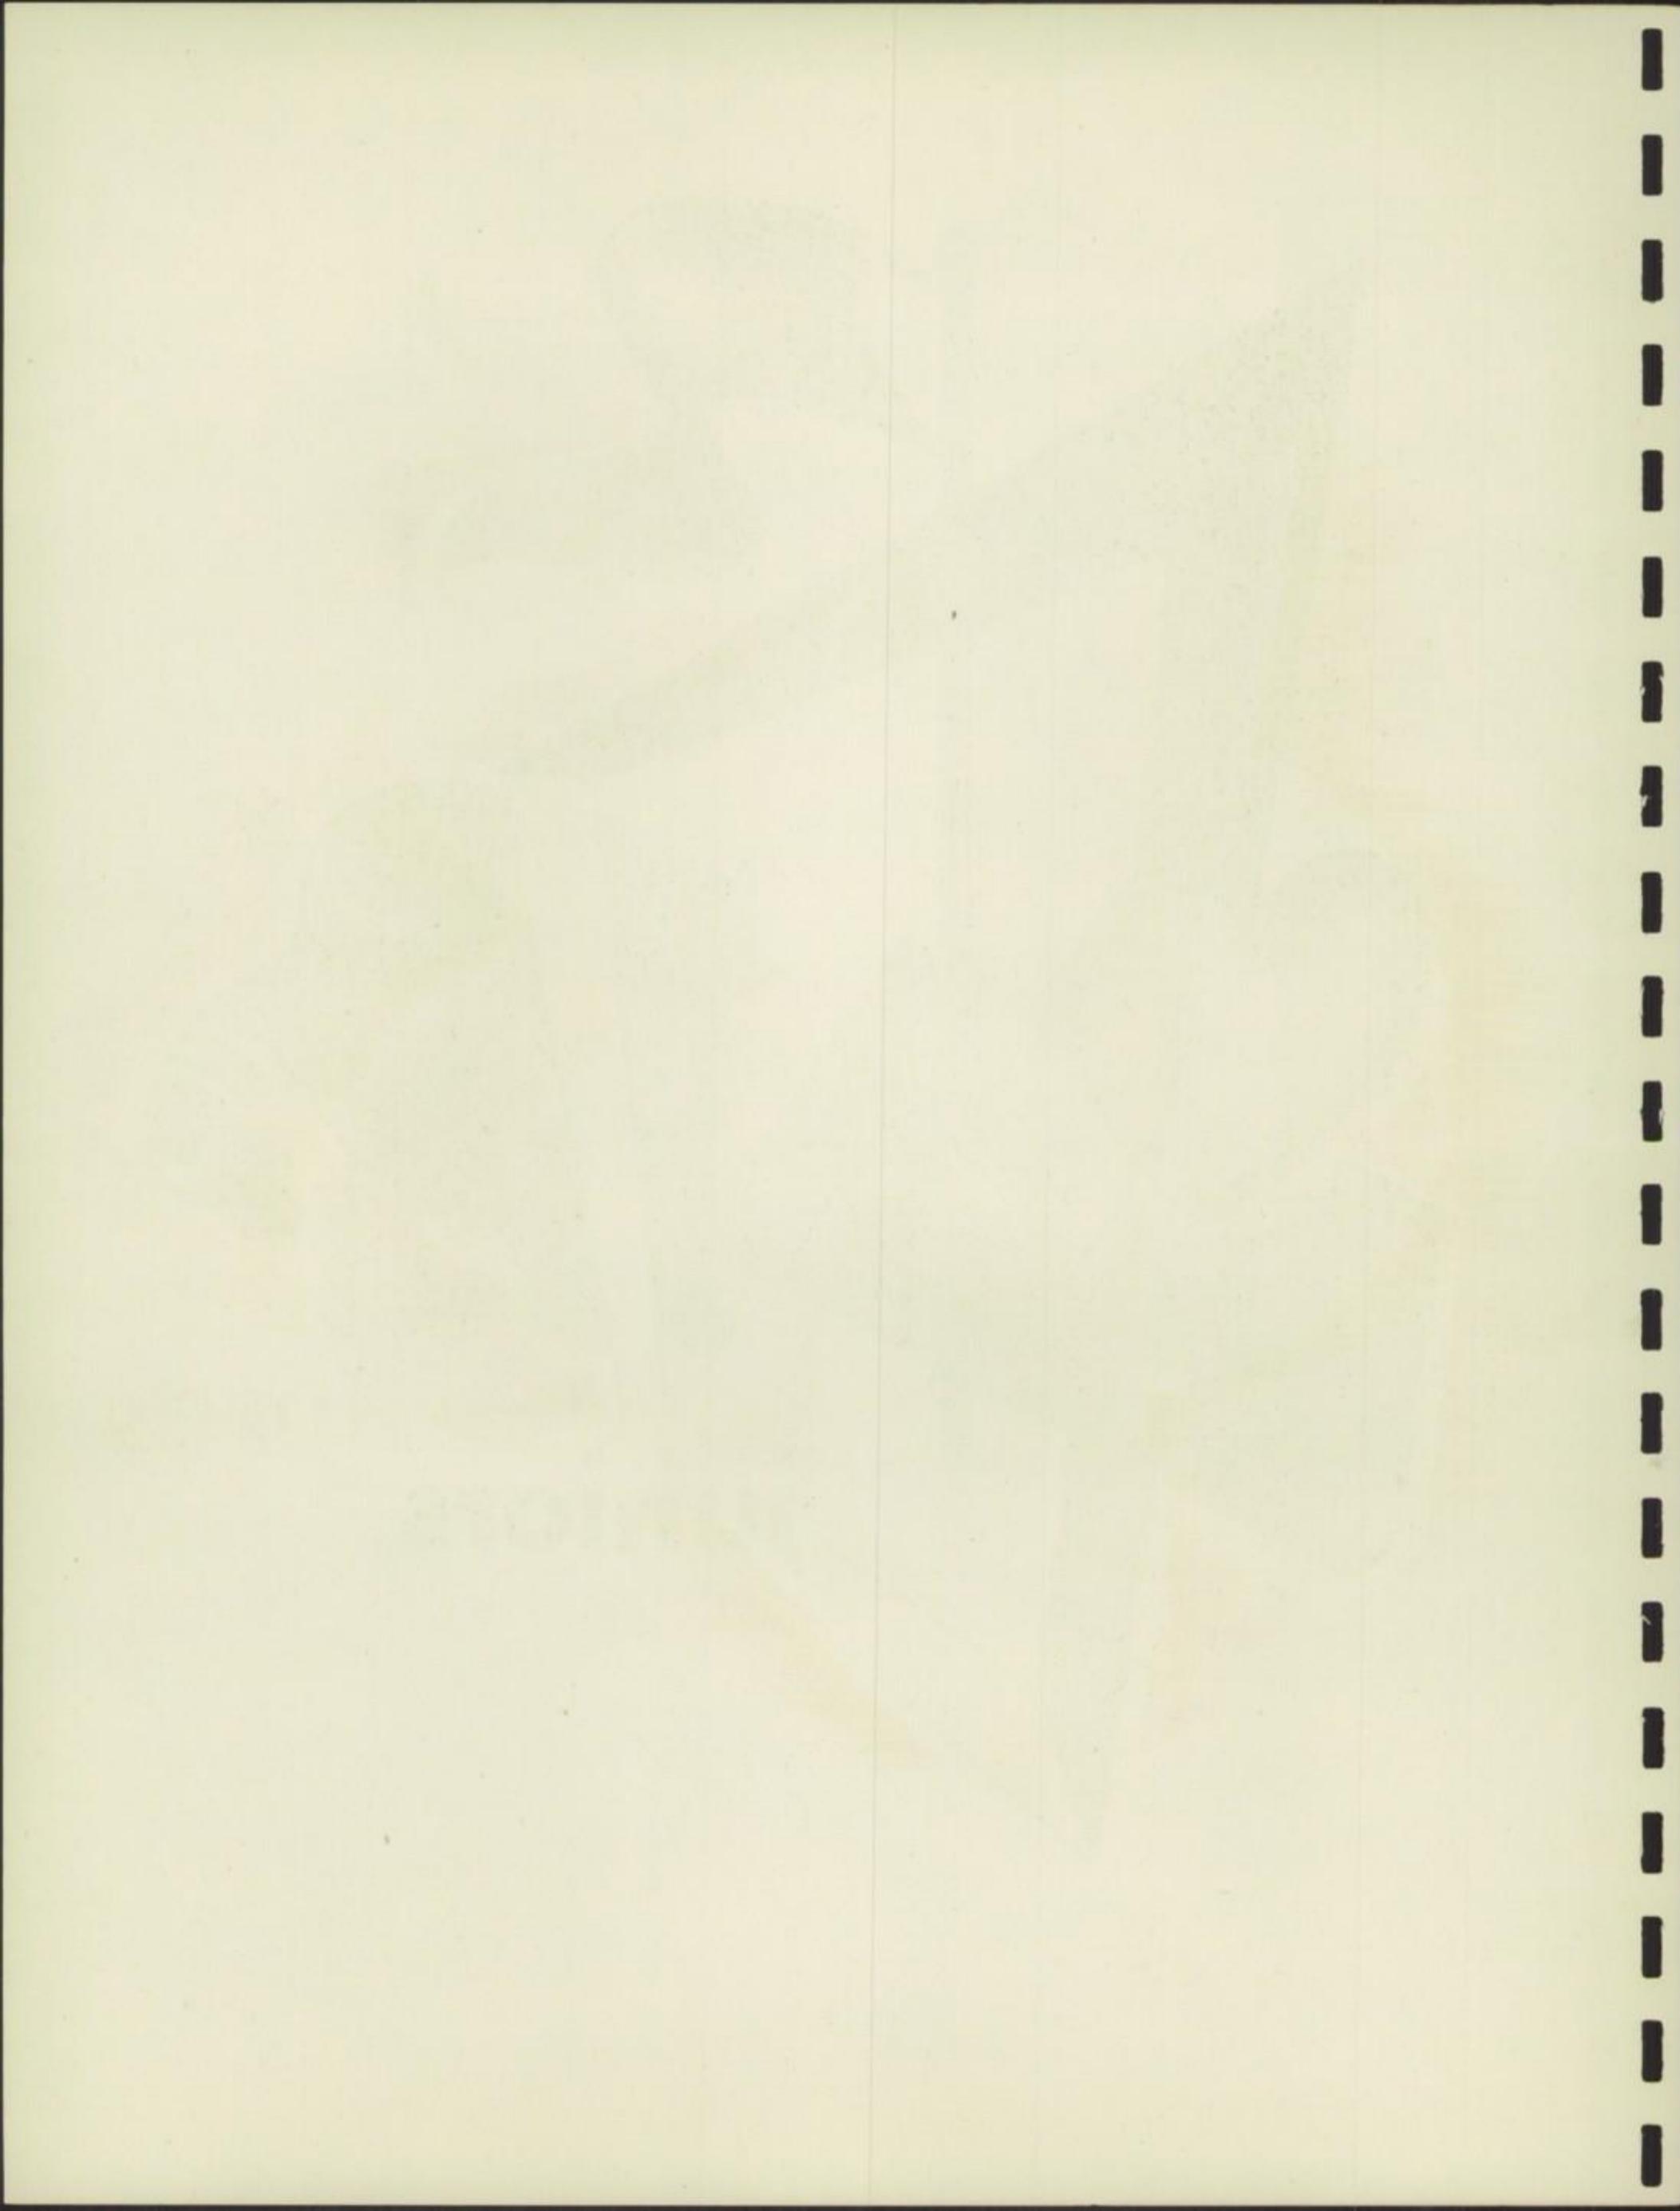

In testimony whereof, we, the class of fifty-two, have to this signed our names and affixed our seal this twenty-third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, A. D.

The Bloomingburg Varsity Basketball Team finished one of its most successful seasons with an impressive 20-5 record. The Bulldogs won the Fayette County League Championship with a 5-1 record, and then went on to win the County Tournament and to take third place in the District Tournament. This was the greatest advance any Fayette County team had ever finished in the District Tournament. Both the Reserves and Junior High teams had their share in the honors by winning the Championship at the Fayette County Tournament.

Leading the Bulldogs' offense was the sensational scoring combination of Bob and Dan Weaver. Dan, a sophomore, led the team in scoring with 386 points, an average of 15.1 per game. Bob, a junior, was close behind with 382 points, an average of 15.2 per game.

In addition to Bob and Dan Weaver, a number of boys contributed to the fine record which the team earned. Gene Nelson, the only senior on the squad, was third in scoring with 160 points. Gene finished a fine high school career as co-captain of the team, and in addition to being an offensive threat and a great rebounder, displayed a competitive spirit which made him a natural leader and an invaluable asset to the team's fine record.

Juniors, Ted Boldman and Gene Elliott, saw much action. Ted Boldman, one of the chief offensive threats, ended the season with 140 points. Gene Elliott's fiery playing broke up a number of games and in the latter stages of the season he began hitting the basket with regularity. Rounding out the varsity squad were Junior Fred Cook, Sophomore Bill Harris, and Freshman Donald Anderson.

In the District Tournament at Waverly, Bloomingburg made their first game against Chillicothe Central Catholic 75-52. They came back in the second game to defeat a powerful West Union team 61-58. They were eliminated in the semifinals, 65-46, by a big, fast Minford team which went on to win the Tournament. The season ended happily for the Bulldogs, however, when they won from Oak Hill 70-61 in the consolation game and thus finished third in the district.

The team's fine record is an attribute to the coaching of Frank Truitt and to the fighting spirit the team displayed throughout the season, a never-say-die attitude, which never let them quit no matter what the score was. The team closed the season with a total of 1426 points, an average of 57 points per game.
